

“With the possible exception of Paris, you’d be hard-pressed to find a more canine-inclusive place to sip wine than Mutt Lynch Winery in Sonoma County.”

DOG FANCY MAGAZINE
July 2010

TAIL-WAGGING WINERIES

Mutt Lynch Winery
Healdsburg, Calif.

With the possible exception of Paris, you’d be hard-pressed to find a more canine-inclusive place to sip wine than Mutt Lynch Winery in Sonoma County. Owners Chris and Brenda Lynch, along with their rescue Greyhound, Patch, warmly welcome dogs into their laid-back production facility and informal tasting room to sample cookies while their humans taste Unleashed Chardonnay, Merlot Over and Play Dead, and other playfully labeled wines.

Otherwise open by appointment, the winery hosts Yappy Hours the third Thursday of every month, with proceeds benefiting various dog charities. For a $5 donation, “you can come in, hang out, and try a new release, while the dogs mix and mingle and get their favorite treat,” says Mutt Lynch “pack member” Ann Joly.

The charming town of Healdsburg, also offers strolling opportunities and a dog park. 707-952-6180;
www.muttlynchwinery.com

“Bark Less, Wag More!”

Brenda Lynch, Owner & Winemaker