

2015 Chateau d'Og Cabernet Sauvignon

Cabernet Sauvignon is King. Some of the greatest wines of the world are produced from Cabernet Sauvignon; none more renowned than the red wines from Bordeaux, France. Impressive houses ("chateaux") honor these prestigious wines from a region where tradition reigns supreme. Our 2015 vintage of Chateau d'Og fills us with a sense of satisfaction. It's got the character of a lovely chateau but not the age. That will come, and when it does...ooh la, la. Sure there's youth, but there's also already a maturity here in the muted, nuanced, layers of flavors that feature red plums and cherries. And the finish is long and well...satisfying. Oh you lucky d'Og. Won't you come visit us at the chateau?

Brenda's Winemaking... Great fruit & cold beer

It's all about the fruit. For her "Dog Series" wines, Brenda has one goal in mind - create fruit-forward wines with varietally true aromatics, mid-palate weight and flavor, and a full bodied and balanced finish. Brenda sources her fruit from a variety of appellations within California always letting the quality of the fruit drive her selections. Her travels always seem to have stops in beach towns for a cold beer at the local pub, which she claims are an equally important part of her winemaking!

Tasting Notes

Our 2015 Mutt Lynch Chateau d'Og Cabernet Sauvignon displays its youth in several ways. It's got a delicate ruby color that's not quite opaque and it's a bit reserved on the nose. It opens to aromas of red plum, black cherry and violet. The flavors echo the aromas and are highlighted by the beckoning notes of dark chocolate. This 100% Cabernet Sauvignon is medium-bodied, has tempered tannins and a long, luscious finish.

Depending on your mood, our suggested food pairings include either a well-seasoned roast beef or a decadent meat torta with cabernet sautéed mushrooms.

Hurry, this "Chateau d'Og" is calling you home...
